

17.140 ACCESSORY USES OR STRUCTURES.

- (a) Principal Use to be Present. An accessory use or structure in any zoning district shall not be established prior to the principal use or structure being present or under construction. Any accessory use or structure shall conform to the applicable regulations of the district in which it is located, except as specifically otherwise provided.
- (b) Placement Restrictions - Residential District. An accessory use or structure in a residential district may be established subject to the following regulations:
- (I) Accessory Building Number Limits. (amended ord. 4-03, dated 7/14/03) In any residential district a principal building and one attached or detached garage is allowed. Detached garages are not to exceed 1200 square feet in area and shall be less than fifteen (15) feet in height.
  - (II) Accessory Building size Limits. (amended ord 4-03, dated 7/14/03) In addition to the garage permitted in 10-1-140(b)(1) above, two additional accessory buildings are permitted, not to exceed 900 square feet in area and 300 square feet in area respectively. Accessory buildings shall be less than fifteen (15) feet in height.
  - (III) Attached Accessory Buildings. All accessory buildings which are attached to the principal building shall comply with the yard requirements of the principal building.
  - (IV) Detached Accessory Building. No detached accessory buildings shall occupy any portion of the required front yard, and no detached accessory building shall occupy more than percent (30%) of the required rear yard or be located within five (5) feet of any other accessory building or lot line. An accessory building shall not be nearer than ten (10) feet to the principal structure unless the applicable building code regulations in regard to one (1) hour fire-resistive construction are complied with. In no event can the accessory uses or structures be forward of the front line of the principal structure.
- (c) Use Restrictions - Residential District. Accessory uses or structures in residential districts shall not involve the conduct of any business, trade or industry except for home occupations as defined herein and shall not be occupied as a dwelling unit.

- (d) Placement Restrictions - Nonresidential Districts. An accessory use or structure in a business or manufacturing district may be established in the rear yard or side yard and shall not be nearer than three (3) feet to any side or rear lot line.
